Good morning everybody ! I hope you are in good health and ready to start with a new lesson. This week we are going to deal with teen's ambitions in their choice for a job. I First, read and understand this text : According to a new survey, 60% of teenagers can't answer this simple question : if you could choose your career, what would you do ? So here you are going to discover the dream career of a few teenagers. Let's start with Jessica who is sixteen years old and who lives in England : -« Well, I would be a doctor or a surgeon if I could ....Life would be great if I could save people and I would feel useful.....But I 'm not sure my dream might come true....If only I were better at maths !! » Now let's listen to Stacy who is seventeen years old and who is from New York :

-« If I were more creative, I would become a fashion designer. But I think I will rather become a saleswoman because not only I'm sociable but I also have a real gift to advise people how to dress to look as elegant as possible. »

Finally our last message is from Kevin, from Paris :

-« If I could choose, I would be a video-game tester. If I managed to do that job, I would be delighted because I would have lots of games for free and it would be very cool to earn money playing at home !! »

Remarques

La proposition en Si fonctionne comme en français :

Si + Présent / prop.principale au Futur.

Exemples :

Si tu travailles dur, tu réussiras.

If you work hard, you will succeed.

Le verbe au Présent et WILL indiquent que l'on parle d'une situation qui a des chances de se concrétiser.

Si + Passé / prop. Principale au conditionnel.

Si tu travaillais dur, tu réussirais :

If you worked hard, you would succeed.

Le verbe au Passé et WOULD indiquent que l'on parle d'une situation imaginaire.

- particularité : le verbe to be apparaît sous la forme « were » à toutes les personnes ; idem avec l'expression « if only »

RAPPEL :

En anglais le futur se forme à l'aide de WILL+ base verbale.

En anglais le conditionnel se forme à l'aide de WOULD+ base verbale.

La liste des verbes irréguliers est à réviser/ apprendre.
